FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, PLEASE!! – for Wednesday, Jan. 24th, 2017 – 7:00 PM.

The Friends of the Marlborough Public Library are pleased to announce the next program in their 2017-2018 Special Program Series when they present “Jack The Ripper”.

History comes alive – one more time – with the infamous Jack the Ripper – the identity of whom was never known! Learn the details of the ghastly murders of five women from London in 1888. Meet the top suspects in the murders. The audience will have the opportunity to question each of the suspects and make their own conclusion as to who the “real” Jack the Ripper was. Let’s solve this case once and for all! The cast will open up to the audience also at the end of the show for lively discussion.

For those of you who caught their performance of Julia Child or Lizzy Borden – this is an event that you will not want to miss. So mark your calendars and join in the fun as judge and jury to finally close the infamous case of Jack the Ripper!

The Delvena Theatre Company will be presenting an interactive production of Jack the Ripper at the Marlborough Public Library, 140 Main Street, Marlborough, on Wednesday, January 24, at 7:00 PM. This edutainment production, was written by Fran Baron and will feature Joseph Zamparelli, Lynne Moulton and Fran Baron.

The Delvena Theatre Company was founded in 1992 and has performed at various venues, most often at the Boston Center for the Arts. The company was nominated for five Independent Reviewers of New England awards. Its production of 'Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?' was on Theatre Mirror's Best List for acting, directing and production. Presentations of 'Anna Weiss' and 'Beyond Therapy' were included on Theatre Mirror's best play list and 'Blue Heart' was placed on Aisle Say's best list.

The program is held in the Bigelow Auditorium at the Marlborough Public Library located at 35 West Main Street, Marlborough. Admission is free and open to the public and the auditorium is fully handicapped accessible.

This program is funded and sponsored in part by the Ezra Cutting Trust-Bank of America Trustee; the Marlborough Cultural Council, a local agency which is supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency; The Friends Memorial Fund; and a gift from the Cummings Foundation in honor of Ginger Ryan.
