

Raymond A. Johnson, (81), of Marlborough and Bernardston, MA sadly passed away Thursday, November 16, 2017.

He was President of the Friends of the Marlborough Public Library since 1972 and a Marlborough Public Library Board of Trustees member since 1970. His life was dedicated to making music, art, culture, education and entertainment available to the people in the community and to being a source of support for his beloved Library.

The Friends, the Library, the Trustees and the Marlborough community have lost an incomparable resource, an unwavering champion, a feisty yet gentle caring man; a true and dear friend.

We send our deepest condolences to his beloved partner and wife Carolyn and his extended family.

We love and miss you, Ray.

Epitaph on a Friend - by Robert Burns

An honest man here lies at rest,
The friend of man, the friend of truth,
The friend of age, and guide of youth;
Few hearts like his, with virtue warm'd
Few heads with knowledge so inform'd;
If there's another world, he lives in bliss;
If there is none, he made the best of this.
